

Netflix India unveils 'Take Ten'

Chennai, Jan 24: Netflix India on Monday announced the launch of 'Take Ten', a short film workshop and competition, that aims to discover and support emerging filmmakers from diverse backgrounds in India.

As a part of this, 10 filmmakers will be given an exciting opportunity to attend workshops by the best in the creative industry and then to make a fully-funded short film with a USD 10,000 grant, a statement said.

The films will be showcased on Netflix's India YouTube channel.

Take Ten is sponsored by the Netflix Fund for Creative Equity, which has dedicated USD 100 million a year over five years to support the next generation of storytellers from underrepresented communities.

"We're excited to launch 'Take Ten' in India - a short film workshop and competition that will open up the chance for aspiring filmmakers from anywhere in India to tell their stories.

For applying to Take Ten, applicants must be a citizen or resident of India and over the age of 18 years. Registrations will open on February 7, 2022.

To enter, applicants will have to submit a film of up to two minutes based on the topic -- My India, which should be shot with their phone and represent who they are as a filmmaker.

The shortlisted participants will get a chance to learn about writing, direction, production and more from award-winning talent, including Abhishek Chaubey, Hansal Mehta, Juhi Chaturvedi, Neeraj Ghaywan and Guneet Monga, the statement said.

TN lockdown hits flow of weekend tourists to Puducherry

Puducherry, Jan 24: The weekly lockdown clamped by the Tamil Nadu government on Sundays has hit the flow of tourists coming into Puducherry.

Several tourist centres in the Union Territory that would normally be buzzing with activities on Saturdays and Sundays presented a forlorn look. The municipal bus terminal here also presented a deserted look as the arrival of buses from districts in the neighbouring state was totally absent.

Normally, private vehicles from states like Tamil Nadu and Karnataka would be zooming around in the former French colony on the weekends.

An auto-rickshaw driver said the flow of tourists to Puducherry was absent Saturday and Sunday which has led to almost zero demand for rickshaw services.

Tourist centres, including establishments run by the Puducherry government, had very less inflow of people.

Puducherry has not adopted total lockdowns but has put in stringent curbs. Lieutenant Governor Tamilisai Soundararajan had told newsmen earlier in the day that if a lockdown was announced in Puducherry on the lines of several states then the livelihood sources of many people would suffer a setback.

She said the territorial government was adopting measures with several 'reasonable relaxations.' Congress leader and former Puducherry chief minister V Narayanasamy had said on Saturday that the UT government was being 'unbearably lax in implementing curbs' and has been 'contributing to the rise in the number of fresh cases of COVID-19'.

Vijay Antony starrer 'Ratham' to have three heroines

Chennai, Jan 24: Vijay Antony, the multi-faceted icon of the Tamil movie industry has been highly extolled for his stellar performances, choice of good scripts, which won the hearts of audiences, and spins profits for the trade. Following the grand success of 'Kodiyil Oruvan', the actor's career graph has escalated to the next level, and the business factors have been expanding as well. While his line-ups look more promising, the actor's collaboration with filmmaker CS Amudhan (Tamil Padam franchise fame) for the film titled 'Ratham' has created a huge sensation. Besides, the inclusion of powerhouse talents into the star-cast and technical crew has been adding more emblazonments to this project. Significantly, the film has now got the arrival of promising actresses Mahima Nambiar, Nandita Swetha & Remya Nambesan, who will be playing the lead heroines. Filmmaker CS Amudhan created a new trend in the South Indian industry with his 'Tamizh Padam' franchise. He is now stepping into a new domian with Ratham, which is an out-and-out political thriller. Stand-up comedian Jagan Krishna is playing an important role in this film. The film has cinematography by Gopi Amarnath, musical score by Kannan, editing by Suresh, and stunts choreographed by Dhilip Subbarayan.

Kamal Bohra, Lalitha Dhananjayan, B. Pradeep, Pankaj Bohra & S. Vikram Kumar of Infiniti Film Ventures are producing this film. It is noteworthy that Vijay Anthony has teamed up with the same production house for another couple of projects titled 'Kolai' and 'Mazhai Pidikatha Manithan'.

'Ratham' completed 40% of shoot already. Balance shoot is scheduled in February. The film will be a Summer 2022 Release.

Colourful Shikara rally held at Dal Lake

Srinagar, Jan 24: The Tourism Department on Sunday held a colourful Shikara rally at the famous Dal Lake here to woo tourists to the Kashmir valley, an official spokesperson said.

The rally was part of a series of events organised by the department to celebrate the 75th year of Independence under the 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav'.

Tourism Director G N Itoo flagged off the rally from Nehru Park and a restricted under of shikarawallas participated in it due to the COVID-19 situation, he said.

The spokesperson said the shikarawallas rowed from Nehru Park to SKICC and back to the park to complete the round.

Speaking on the occasion, the director tourism emphasised on observing COVID-19 guidelines strictly amid the ongoing third wave of the pandemic to save the stakeholders from falling to the disease.

He said that shikarawallas, houseboat owners and tourists should wear masks and maintain physical distance so tourism is not affected. The aim of organising such events is to highlight the tourism potential of the valley, besides acquainting general public with the values of independent India, the spokesperson said.

Guru Somasundaram's next is 'Bell'

Chennai, Jan 24: Actor Guru Somasundaram, the most talented actor and master of expressions, won huge praises for his prodigious performance in the recent sensational film 'Minnal Murali' as Siby. He is all set to amuse the audiences with his outstanding performance as an antagonist named Brahma in his upcoming movie 'Bell'.

A secret remains guarded by a lineage across generations. The visually impaired Graham Bell, the last member of a dynasty, has kept it veiled for a long time. The screenplay is about how Bell perceives everyone he comes across in his life. The movie is shot extensively across Yercaud and hill regions in 60 days.

Peter Chakravarthy and

David Nalachakravarthy of Brogan Movies are producing this film that features Nithish Veera and Kalaimamani Sreedhar playing the content-driven heroes. Robert is composing music that has lyrics by Peter Chakravarthy. Bharani Kannan is handling cinematography. The story and dialogues are written by Veyilon. R. Vengat Bhuvan has written the screenplay and directed this film. Bell is all set for a worldwide theatrical release shortly.
